

THREE VOYAGING POETS READING FROM NEW WORK
23rd Oct at the Poetry Cafe, Betterton St, Covent Garden, WC2H 9BX

7.30pm £3.00 on the door.

Kavita. A. Jindal is a prize-winning writer whose work has appeared in literary journals worldwide and has been broadcast on BBC Radio, Zee TV and European Radio stations. She is the author of Patina and Raincheck Renewed. Selected Poems have been translated into Arabic, German, Punjabi, Spanish and Romanian. Her poem 'Kabariwala' is included in 100 Great Indian Poems (Bloomsbury, 2018).
www.kavitajindal.com

Isabel Bermudez's latest prize-winning pamphlet is Madonna Moon (Coast to Coast to Coast, 2019). Her previous collections are Extranjeros, (Flarestack Poets, 2015), Small Disturbances (Rockingham Press, 2016) and Sanctuary (Rockingham Press, 2018). Kathryn Southworth speaks of the '...delicacy and understatement characteristic of her style...', adding, 'Critics of her previous work have noted its traffic between cultures and personal histories and its linguistic precision and craft'.

www.poetrypf.co.uk

Róisín Tierney's pamphlet Dream Endings (Rack Press) won the 2012 Michael Marks Award. She featured as one of Ireland's 'Rising Poets' in Poetry Ireland Review in 2016 and has won prizes in many national competitions including the Strokestown, Bridport and Winchester Poetry Prizes. Her collection The Spanish-Italian Border is published by Arc (2014). She is a Hawthornden Fellow.

www.roisintierney.blogspot.com